

The International Dewey Centers Network Presents
A Joint Online Colloquium Series

Panel Discussion
Deweyans from the South
Aesthetics, Political Theory, and Education

Representing the Argentina
Dewey Center at Catholic University of Córdoba

Laura Elizia Haubert (Assunção Univ Center), “Beauty as an Implicit Concept in Dewey’s Art as Experience”

Livio Mattarollo (Nat’l Univ of La Plata), “Reconstruction in Democracy: Dewey on the Epistemic Import of Social Conflict”

Juan Manuel Saharrea (Catholic Univ of Córdoba), “The Occupations Approach: A Divergent Reconstruction of Dewey’s Experimentalism”

March 16, 2026

<https://tinyurl.com/ArgentDC>

(Registration Required)

Carbondale	Argentina	Dublin	CET	Türkiye	India	Beijing	Tokyo
8:30am	10:30am	1:30pm	2:30pm	4:30pm	7:00pm	9:30pm	10:30pm

The Center for Dewey Studies at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, USA has facilitated the establishment of many International Dewey Centers. This active international network spans four continents, promoting research and teaching on the work, life, and legacy of John Dewey and on pragmatist and American philosophy. This colloquium is organized by the Center for Dewey Studies at SIU in cooperation with the other members of the IDC Network. Find out more about this program and the Dewey Center at SIU at <https://deweycenter.siu.edu/>

Upcoming IDC Colloquia:

- March 16: Argentina Dewey Center at Cordoba
- April 29: China Dewey Center at Fudan University
- May 13: India Dewey Center

Find out more by visiting:

