

The International Dewey Centers Network Presents
A Joint Online Colloquium Series

Dorit Barchana-Lorand

“Advocacy for Art Education from a Deweyan Perspective” with comments by Michał Wieczorek

Representing the Irish Dewey Center
at University College Dublin

Dorit Barchana-Lorand is visiting UCD from Kibbutzim College in Tel Aviv. Her research has evolved from engaging Kant’s aesthetics to exploring the intersection of art, education, and society. Her newest book is Philosophical Questions in Art Education (2025).

Michał Wieczorek is an Ad Astra Fellow/ Assistant Professor in the School of Education, UCD. He studies how new technologies impact the values, goals and practices of education.

March 6, 2026

<https://tinyurl.com/DCDublin>

Carbondale	Argentina	Dublin	CET	Türkiye	India	Beijing	Tokyo
8:00am	11:00am	2:00pm	3:00pm	5:00pm	7:30pm	10:00pm	11:00pm

The Center for Dewey Studies at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, USA has facilitated the establishment of many International Dewey Centers. This active international network spans four continents, promoting research and teaching on the work, life, and legacy of John Dewey and on pragmatist and American philosophy. This colloquium is organized by the Center for Dewey Studies at SIU in cooperation with the other members of the IDC Network. Find out more about this program and the Dewey Center at SIU at <https://deweycenter.siu.edu/>

Upcoming IDC Colloquia:

- March 16: Argentina Dewey Center at Cordoba
- April: China Dewey Center at Fudan University
- May: India Dewey Center at Savitribai Phule Pune University

Find out more by visiting:

