

The International Dewey Centers Network Presents
A Joint Online Colloquium Series

Kenneth Stickers

“Max Scheler and John Dewey on ‘Value’ and ‘the Qualitative’”

Representing the USA Center for
Dewey Studies at Southern Illinois
University Carbondale

The inaugural speaker in the International Dewey Centers Colloquium Series, Kenneth Stickers is Professor of Philosophy and Africana Studies at Southern Illinois University Carbondale. He earned his PhD at DePaul University. His primary research areas are philosophy of economics and historical and thematic connections between American and Continental philosophy. He has published three books and over 90 articles.

January 21, 2026

URL <https://tinyurl.com/DeweyIC>

Carbondale      Argentina
8:00am      11:00am

Dublin      CET
2:00pm      3:00pm

Türkiye
5:00pm

India      Beijing      Tokyo
7:30pm      10:00pm      11:00pm

The Center for Dewey Studies at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, USA has facilitated the establishment of many International Dewey Centers. This active international network spans four continents, promoting research and teaching on the work, life, and legacy of John Dewey and on pragmatist and American philosophy. This colloquium is organized by the Center for Dewey Studies at SIU in cooperation with the other members of the IDC Network. Find out more about this program and the Dewey Center at SIU at <https://deweycenter.siu.edu/>

Upcoming IDC Colloquia:

- March 6: Ireland Dewey Center at UC Dublin
- March 16: Argentina Dewey Center at Cordoba
- April: China Dewey Center at Fudan University
- May: India DC

Find out more by visiting:

